

Dudley Healy

Distance star Dudley Healy, Hall of Famer, dies at age 95

By Ken Stone on May 14, 2009 4:54 AM | 3 Comments

Dudley in January 2003.

Masters Hall of Fame member Dudley L. Healy died May 11 at Overlook Hospital in Summit, New Jersey, according to posted obituaries on the Web. He was 95. His last recorded race was in July 2007 at Long Branch, New Jersey. Inducted with the Hall of Fame Class of 2003, Dudley was a lifelong resident of Chatham, New Jersey. He worked for General Electric for 43 years after graduating from Lehigh University in 1936. "Dudley competed in over 1,000 races in five continents," said one obituary. "World Champ in track and field and USATF age-group Runner of the Year 10 times, he previously held three national records in track and field and road racing." Funeral services will be at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, May 16, at Stanley Congregational Church, Fairmount Avenue, Chatham. Friends may visit at Wm. A. Bradley & Son, 345 Main St., Chatham from 5 to 8 p.m. Friday, May 15, and 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. Saturday. He won many national masters titles, from 800 to 5,000 meters. He took third at the 1999 Gateshead world meet in the 10K in M85. In 2005, he was USATF's Male Runner of the Year in the M90 age group. Our condolences to his family, and many running friends.