Re: List of Affiliates, Competitors and Delegates

Dear Friends:

Enclosed is an updated list of WAVA affiliates, competitors, and delegates, based on the number of participants in Eugene, Turku and Miyazaki.

- 1) The first column shows the number of delegates each affiliate was entitled to in Miyazaki, based on the formula used to determine delegates, as stated in the WAVA Constitution, Section 4(B):

"At the General Assembly, each affiliate shall be entitled to one delegate and also one additional delegate for each 100 of its competitors in the last three World Veterans Athletics Championships (excluding the current Championship), but no affiliate shall be entitled to more than five delegates."

- 2) The second column shows the number of delegates who actually showed up in Miyazaki and voted. Of the 141 eligible delegates, 99 were there. (Along with 15 voting Council members, the maximum votes that could be cast on any ballot measure was 114.)
- 3) The next four columns show the number of competitors from each nation at each of the last three World Championships, and the combined total for each.
- 4) The next column shows the number of delegates each affiliate is entitled to in 1995 in Buffalo, based on the above formula. As of March 10, the total is 147. (That number will likely increase as new affiliates sign up prior to Buffalo.)
- 5) Thus, Canada, for example, with a total of 366 competitors in the last three Championships, gets four delegates. Norway, with a total of 219, gets three delegates. Brazil, with 139, gets two. And so on.

Some interesting data can be gleaned from the report:

- + The number of affiliates is up to an even 100.
- + More than half (50) of the 99 voting delegates in Miyazaki were from Europe.
- + Countries adding delegates in Buffalo will be: Spain (1), Mexico (1), Brazil (1), India (1), Japan (3), Taiwan (1). Losing delegates will be New Zealand (2).

If you have any questions or comments about anything in this report, please contact me or your regional representative.

Re: Affiliate Competitors and Delegates

Dear Friends:

Enclosed is an updated list of WAVA affiliates, competitors and delegates, based on the number of competitors in Turku, Miyazaki and Buffalo.

The list of affiliates is based on Torsten's latest report of March 10, 1996. There will likely be new affiliates signing up before the General Assembly in Durban.

Some interesting data gleaned from the report:

- 1) The number of eligible delegates will increase 16% from 147 in Buffalo to 170 (or more) in Durban.
- 2) The number of affiliates is up 17% to 117.
- 3) Affiliates which will increase from one delegate in Buffalo to two in Durban are: Denmark, Portugal, Russia, Netherlands, South Africa, Colombia and Taiwan. India goes from three to four. Canada jumps from four to five. Norway drops from three to two.
- 4) Of the 117 affiliates, 30 have not been represented by an athlete at any of the last three championships. Yet they each have one vote. Fifteen other affiliates have each had less than four participants.

Re: List of Affiliates, Competitors and Delegates

Dear Friends:

Enclosed is an updated list of WAVA affiliates, competitors and delegates, based on the number of participants in the WAVA World Veterans Championships in Turku, Miyazaki and Buffalo. The list is arranged alphabetically by country within each region.

The WAVA Constitution, Section 4(B), states:

"At the General Assembly, each affiliate shall be entitled to one delegate and also one additional delegate for each 100 of its competitors in the last three WAVA Stadia World Veterans Athletics Championships (excluding the current Championship), but no affiliate shall be entitled to more than five delegates."

The first four columns of the report show the number of competitors from each nation at each of the last three World Championships, and the combined total for each.

The next column shows the number of delegates each affiliate is entitled to at this year's General Assembly in Durban, based on the above formula.

Thus, New Zealand, for example, with a total of 216 competitors in the last three Championships, gets three delegates. Spain, with 141, gets two. And so on.

Some interesting data can be gleaned from the report:

- 1) The number of eligible delegates will increase 16% from 147 in Buffalo to 170 (or more, if new affiliates sign up prior to July 24) in Durban.
- 2) The number of affiliates is up 17% from 100 to 117.
- 3) Affiliates which will increase from one delegate in Buffalo to two in Durban are: Denmark, Portugal, Russia, Netherlands, South Africa, Colombia, and Taiwan. India goes from three to four. Canada jumps from four to five. Norway drops from three to two.
- 4) Of the 117 affiliates, 30 have not been represented by an athlete at any of the last three championships. Nevertheless, they each are entitled to one vote. Fifteen other affiliates have each had less than four participants in the last three championships.
