Dear Rex,

Enclosed is the record application for Everett Hosack's weight pentathlon at Columbus on September 8th. Note that the form needs Everett's signature at the bottom. Would you please get Everett's signature and forward the record with accompanying paperwork to Pete Mundle? Thanks.

Also enclosed are photocopies of the record applications and accompanying documentation for the 25 pound and 35 pound weight throws for Everett's records.

Call me if you have any comments, and thanks again for your assistance with Everett's records.

Sincerely,

September 26, 1996

Dear Pete;

Enclosed are record applications with supporting materials for Everett Hosack's performances in the 25 pound weight and the 35 pound weight at the 1996 Wolfpack Throwing Classic.

Everett also set an apparent record in the weight pentathlon. In the Weight Pentathlon, he threw the appropriate WAVA weights except that he threw the 16 pound weight rather than the twelve. He will be mailing the pentathlon application form to you, since we realized after the meet that it requires his signature.

Weight pentathlon marks were calculated based on the first three throws.

Enclosed are: signed application forms for the 35 pound weight throw and the 25 pound weight throw, photocopies of original event sheets, a copy of the meet flyer, and a copy of the meet results.

If you need any additional information or support from me, please contact me.

Sincerely,

James W. Pearce, Jr.
