RESULTS

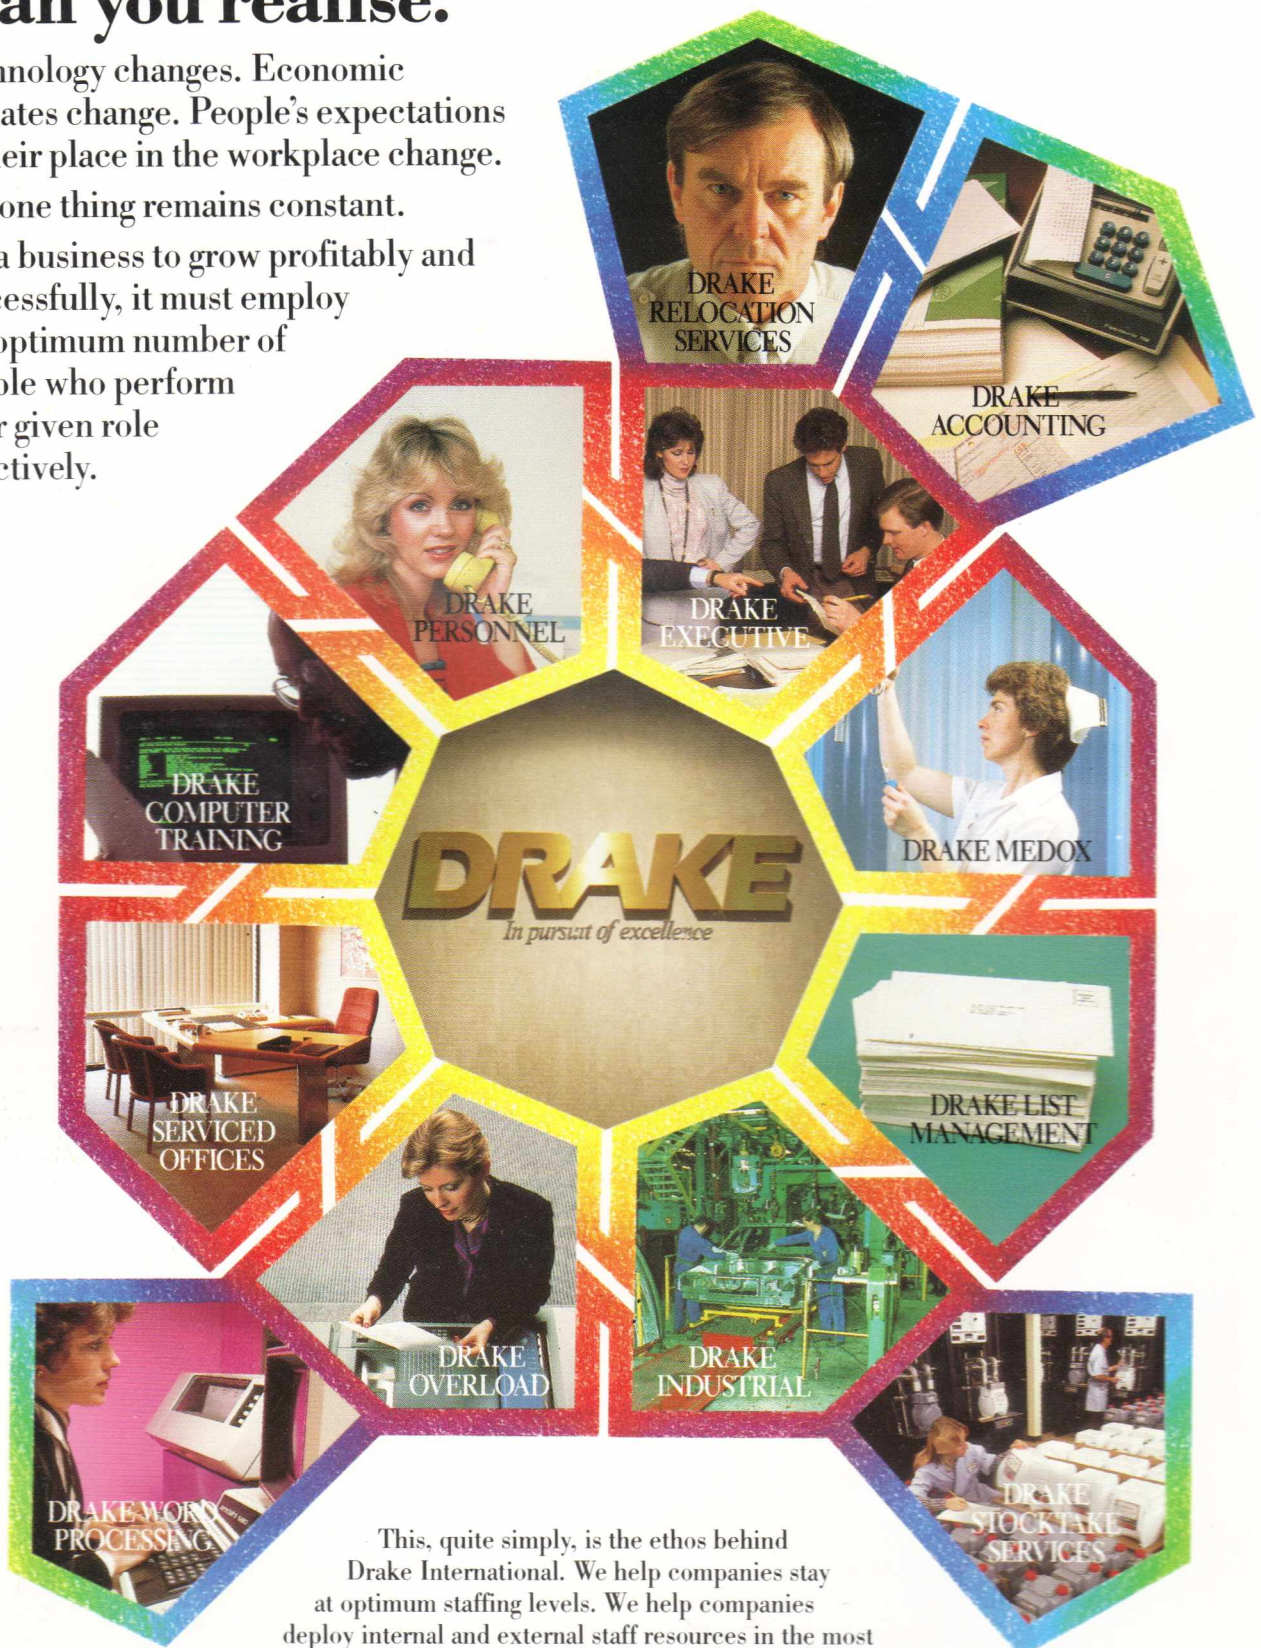

MELBOURNE 1987

There's more to Drake than you realise.

Technology changes. Economic climates change. People's expectations of their place in the workplace change.

But one thing remains constant.

For a business to grow profitably and successfully, it must employ the optimum number of people who perform their given role effectively.

This, quite simply, is the ethos behind Drake International. We help companies stay at optimum staffing levels. We help companies deploy internal and external staff resources in the most cost-efficient way. ● Today, Drake International is everything from a filing clerk to a company president, computer systems to truck drivers, a temporary typist during a sudden crisis, to the staffing of an entirely new business. ● But all the varied services Drake International provides have one common link – they acknowledge the importance of people in an ever increasingly technological world. ● Drake assists business throughout Australia and New Zealand.

VETERANS'

GAMES

M E L B O U R N E 1 9 8 7

More than 4800 athletes are contesting the 10-day titles, the largest number of competitors in a track and field event in the World.

CONGRATULATIONS...

TO ATHLETES FOR:

- Good sportsmanship
- Record breaking performances
- Supporting Veterans Athletics
- Unfailing good humour in adverse weather
- Being part of Sporting History of Australia
- For setting a high standard of friendliness and concern for each other.

No athletes in any event anywhere in the world could do more for the goodwill of their sport than those who took part in these games.

TO COMMITTEES FOR:

- The time and effort put in, quite often at the expense of their own athletic performances.
- The superb professionalism which each committee showed in organisation of their own particular area.
- The loving care and thoughtfulness shown for the athletes and their problems.

The time and effort put in ensured an enjoyable event for participants and spectators alike.

TO ORGANISATIONS:

- Qualified officials, whose experience and dedication contributed to making the Games run as smooth as clockwork throughout the many days of competition.
- The Victorian Police, who looked after athletes on and off the roads.
- The Australian Sports Medicine Federation, the Society of Clinical Masseurs, the St. John Ambulance Brigade, the paramedics and all those who worked so hard to ensure that all the participants could be in the best condition to compete throughout their competition.
- The Athletics Clubs, the Wizen Radio Operators, the Olympic Park Management staff for responding so enthusiastically and helping make these Games an event of a lifetime.

TO SPONSORS:

- Victorian Sport and Recreation for recognising and encouraging the staging of the Games in Melbourne.
- Australian Sports Commission for supporting the development of an international event for the mature age athlete.
- City of Melbourne for the outstanding support which made the visitors to Melbourne feel very welcome. Many we hope will carry a very special place in their hearts for this fair city in the future.
- Drake International who recognised the importance of the people who have competed and worked together with such dedication and enthusiasm.
- I.O.O.F for the support that was given over a long period of time, which enabled all planning to be done confidently and helped with promotions to ensure a record breaking entry for the marathon.

VII WORLD VETERANS' GAMES

- Australian Airlines and Qantas as our official carriers supported the Games from the outset. Without such early support from commercial organisations such as these we could never have achieved the success that we have.

- Other sponsors such as Nike for clothing, Menzies at Rialto for accommodation, Gas & Fuel for hospitality and the Flame of Friendship, Vale Displays and Pewter Products who helped give our presentations the professional touch, Thomas Cook, Boot & Clothing, Mita Copiers, Seiko who helped keep our timing spot on. Each in their own area were an invaluable part of the whole event.

Other sponsors and volunteers number in excess of 1000, together all those mentioned above were the key factor in making the Games the outstanding success it was.

A special thank you to Ray Callaghan whose shoulders bore the burden of making it all happen on the day. Also the Organising Body and dedicated staff who are all very special people.

I wish the organisers of the VIII Veterans Games in Eugene, Oregon, USA in 1989 every success and I look forward to meeting many of you there.

Thank you all for making these Games in Melbourne, Australia so very special.

M.E. (Peg) Smith
Executive Director

ONE OF THE MANY LETTERS OF THANKS...

To Organisers, helpers and sponsors

Just a note to say how very much I enjoyed the World Veterans' Games.

The whole experience was exciting and unforgettable and I really appreciate all the time, loving care and effort that went into organising such a wonderful occasion.

The World Veterans' Games Marathon was my 8th marathon and easily my favourite (Even better than Hawaii) The atmosphere was superb and the whole event was impeccably organised. I ran a P.B and loved every minute of it!

I'm quite severely disabled with arthritis and didn't think I'd ever run a marathon under 5 hours again.

I think last Sunday (6 Dec) was the most exciting day of my life! And the medal is beautiful!

Thanks! It was all joy!

And being with all those thousands of athletes was a very special experience too.

Thank you for a life changing adventure.

Best wishes to all of you.

Rikki Bewley

The VII World Veterans Games Organising Body wish to record their gratitude and appreciation to these organisations and all individuals for their valuable assistance and support throughout the preparations and conduct of the Games.

HOW THE NEWS

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 29 DAY 1

Day one got away to a good start. Mildura high jumper Gwen Davidson set a world record in the women's 65 event. She cleared 1.22 metres, adding 10cm to the mark set by American Mary Lou Bow-ermaster.

Davidson resumed athletics only 10 weeks ago after a lapse of 50 years.

But Mary Lou was still in the news yesterday. She competed in the 70 years event and cleared 1.13 m. The previous mark was 1.11m.

Dutch hurdler Corie Van Den Bosch put in an outstanding performance in the women's 50 years 80 m hurdle.

She clocked 12.73 seconds, taking a huge slice off the previous world time of 14.12 seconds.

Another record went to American Phillipa Raschker in the women's 40 years, 80 m hurdle. She clocked 11.92 seconds in the heat, taking .06 of a second off her previous best.

Raschker dominated the recent US national masters titles, winning seven events, and is expected to break further records here.

In the men's 65 long jump, Tom Patsalis (US) cleared 5.29 m, beating the previous world record of 5.2 m, held by German Hans Bitter.

Competing in the 80-85 years section, Irja threw the hammer 16.76 metres. And that qualified as a world age record, because it was the first time the event had been held.

WEST Australian distance runner John Gilmour started the seventh World Veterans Games with a tremendous 10,000 metres win yesterday.

The former Changi prisoner-of-war blitzed the field to win the 65-69 year division by almost two minutes, in a time of 37:37:39.

More than 4800 competitors from 50 countries are participating in the games, which started yesterday and run for 10 days. They are billed by organisers as the largest of their type in the world.

Gilmour, 68, lapped the entire field of 40 to defeat Sweden's Bengt Persson (39:25.6) and Norway's Mathias Bergseth (40:05.05).

The most heavily-decorated distance runner in world veterans' history, Gilmour holds 29 world records. Yesterday's win was his fifth 10,000 m world championship.

MONDAY NOVEMBER 30 DAY 2

No matter the aches and pains, the vets from more than 50 countries can take a bow for the tight competition and sometimes outstanding performances for any age during the opening two days of the games.

John Landy, the world mile record-holder 30 years ago, who opened the games, said he admired the competitors. "They have the right spirit to win and to break records, and to do their personal best, but most of all they are happy to take part," he said.

There was Melbourne father and son, Bert and Bob Gardiner. Bob, 51 and a former Olympian, won the 20-kilometre walk yesterday, and Bert presented him with his gold medal.

"Bob has put a lot of pressure on me," said 85-year-old Bert, who will be in the 85-89 years five-kilometre walk on Friday.

Black Flash

The black flash was T.J. Bell from the U.S., who shocked former Stawell Gift and Powderhall Gift winner George McNeill, of Scotland, to win the gold medal in the 40 years 100 m.

T.J. stands for Thaddeus John. He is a black American from South Carolina and yesterday he wore a black singlet and a black, shiny synthetic one-piece running suit.

Just when McNeill seemed certain of winning, Bell came flying past and took the race in 10.92 sec, with the Scotsman clocking 10.95 sec.

"I am a physician and have been telling my patients to exercise to get fit. Two years ago I decided to set an example and I took up competitive running," Bell said.

TUESDAY DECEMBER 1 DAY 3

If ever there was a day for the older folk to be home rugged up in front of a cosy fire it was the first day of summer, yesterday.

But it takes more than torrential Melbourne rain, a flooded track and cold, biting winds to stop even hardy veteran athletes in their 80's going on with the show.

There was no way the 40, 50 and 60-year-olds would have been missing, but the cold and wet were good reasons for the 70 and 80-year-olds to stay away. However, they all rolled up at Olympic Park yesterday morning ready for another day at the Drake International world track and field championships.

Despite the most terrible weather the veteran titles hardly missed a beat from 10am until 10pm.

Eddie Moore, the 83-year-old chief track umpire who has been in athletics for 66 years and an official for 41, had never seen anything like it.

"I've never known races to continue in such heavy rain. Any other athletics meeting would have been cancelled," Moore said. "We could have had a 10-mile swim here," Moore said.

Irene Obera, 53, from California, dashed away with the women's 50-54 years 200m for her second gold medal at the Games. Irene won the 100m on the weekend.

"The weather doesn't worry me, we all came here to compete, not to complain," she said.

Wilma Perkins, 38, from Brisbane, won the 35-39 year 200 m title and danced a jig of joy after crossing the line.

"I hadn't competed since I was a schoolgirl until a few years ago when my kids joined the Little Athletics movement, and I thought it would be nice to do some training with them," Perkins said.

The 55-59 years 220 m was won by Charlie Wilson, a former Trinidad athlete now representing Great Britain. It was Wilson's second gold after he won the 100 m on the weekend.

And just to prove that a good athlete can overcome anything, even the weather, West German Peter Mirkes smashed the world 200 m record in the 60-64 year group with a dashing 24.82 sec into a stiff headwind.

In some events, like the 5000 m, the large numbers of entrants forced organisers to run up to five divisions in the one age category to prevent a bottleneck of runners.

Portugal's Armando Aldegalega raced away to win his division in the impressive time of 16 minutes. Aldegalega does not speak English, but the look on his face said it all.

It was his second win of the Games (he won the 10,000 m on Sunday), and in the absence of his more illustrious countryman, Carlos Lopes, it was a triumph for Portugal.

These days sprinter Reg Austin, one of the world's great veteran athletes, sometimes wonders if it is all worthwhile.

However, if Austin, who has won 14 gold medals at seven world titles, needed any incentive to continue, he felt it again at the Drake World Veterans Games at Olympic Park.

PAPERS SAW IT...

Not only did he win his sixth world 200 metres title, but he won the 50 to 55 years race by a massive 10 metres and his time of 23.12 seconds was considerably faster than the best 200-metre men 10 years younger.

Another great run in appalling conditions last night was by Mexican Anonio Villanueva, 47, in the 45 to 49 5000 metres.

On Sunday, Villanueva broke the 20-year-old 10,000 metres record held by Melbourne Olympic marathon champion, Frenchman Alain Mimoun.

Last night he missed the 5000 record by only 20 seconds, clocking 14 minutes 44.19 seconds in an inspiring solo run.

THURSDAY DECEMBER 3 DAY 4

A very slow loser was really a superb winner in the cross country events of the world veterans' track and field championships yesterday at Royal Park.

Allan Johnson, 47, of Canberra, finished a very distant last in the 45-49 years 10 km cross country.

But Johnson was a hero in the eyes of his family and those who knew his story.

Johnson was running for his life.

A victim of leukemia, he is in remission and is running to give him strength to fight the killer disease.

The race was won by New Zealander Ron Robertson who blitzed the field as he clocked 31 min 53 sec.

The winner, Robertson, 46, was the defending champion and made sure of retaining his title by leading all the way.

"I didn't start running until I was 39. I had bought some golf clubs, but a neighbour talked me into joining the local running club in Gisborne," Robertson said.

"Soon I was so involved in running that I sold the golf clubs to help finance me to go to the world veterans games in Rome two years ago."

After competing in four previous world veterans championships, Tauno Valasti of Finland won his first gold medal yesterday when he took out the 50-54 years cross country title from Joe Cowie of New Zealand and Jim Seymon of Australia.

Frenchman Antoine Borowski, a former world cross country champion, led all the way to win the 40-44 years cross country race from Dic Evans of Wales and John Sheridan of Ireland.

Bill Morales, 71, of Anaheim, California, epitomises the "get up and go" personality which so many of the games competitors have displayed this week.

The pentathlon requires the athlete to compete in five events (long jump, javelin, 200 m, discus and 1500 m), all in one day.

Bill has attended every games since their inception in Toronto in 1975.

"The best thing about the games is meeting so many people," he said.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 4 DAY 5

Today's high jump in the 50-54 age group was won by a West German mother of two, Wiltrud Lohnert, who cleared the bar at 1.43 m.

"I didn't start in athletics until I was 28," Wiltrud said after receiving her gold medal. "I tried gymnastics and then athletics, this is the best, it gives me a lot."

Karla Wachter, 35, of Switzerland, won the women's 35-39 years javelin with a throw of 41.86 m. She is a former Swiss amateur champion.

Former Australian and Victorian shot put champion, Chris Schultz, was second with best distance of 38.14 m.

SATURDAY DECEMBER 5 DAY 6

On Saturday alone, 22 world marks were set. Few of the record makers will be remembered in years to come, but for each it was as Austin said: "The ultimate."

Like the one-lap dash by Austin, the 1500 metres world time of 4 minutes 41.82 seconds by Jac Ryan, from Mentone, in the 1500 metres was worth strong acclaim.

Ryan, who earlier had missed the 800-metre world mark by only 0.2 seconds, reduced the world 1500 metres record by a staggering 7.5 seconds on Saturday and looked as though he could do it again almost immediately.

Yesterday, he was even more amazing. In the masters mile he ran 5 minutes 05.61 seconds to smash another world record by 15 seconds.

Other "ultimate" performances came from 45-year-old New Zealander David Sirl, who took the 1500 metres in 4 minutes 1.47 seconds to claim a world record on Saturday. Yesterday he also smashed his age group world record for the mile with 4:16.75.

Then there was 55-year-old Briton Charlie Williams who whipped through one lap in 53.98 on Saturday and Tom Roberts, from Ballarat, who ran the world fastest mile for a 50-year-old in 4:30.06.

And to see 40-year-old New Zealander John Dixon win a hotly contested 1500 metres in 3:55.91 is enough to take your breath away.

In the same race was a former Australian sub-four-minute miler, the Reverend Keith Wheeler.

It is easy to poke fun at the veterans. But the standard in some of the events during the past nine days was better than we would see from much younger Melbourne A grade amateurs.

Another example of the high standard was in the men's hammer throw on Saturday, won by Melbourne's Hans Lotz with 66.94 metres. This was one metre further than he threw to finish fourth in this year's Australian open championship.

Some of the "oldies" performances were equally sensational. Eighty-year-old Australian Harry Gathercole set a world 200 metres mark of 32.14 seconds during the week and on Saturday easily won the 100 metres in 15.70.

Australian Olympic Games and national selector Paul Jenes, who competed in the vets long jump, said: "Go through the names in many events and it stuns you. The performances could be an embarrassment to a lot of younger people in Australia."

SUNDAY DECEMBER 6 DAY 7

Kjell-Erik Stahl was the marathon favourite and he ran solo for the last 35 of the 42 kilometres around Port Melbourne, under the West Gate freeway and through South Melbourne, St. Kilda and Elwood along Beach Road and Beaconsfield Parade and return to Olympic Park.

He beat home two much smaller runners, Theof Tsingatos from Greece (2:26.26), and New Zealander Robert Joy (2:27.18).

First woman was Londoner Anne Roden, 41, who clocked her best time of 2:43.46 in the testing conditions.

Old New Zealand warrior Derek Turnbull, the first 60-year old home, in 2:42, had no trouble sleeping before winning his sixth gold medal of the titles.

"I had a few beers and slept like a top. That's the good thing about veteran athletes. It makes you eat like a horse and sleep like a dog and I never go to the doctor. It must be saving the government millions said Turnbull, a farmer.

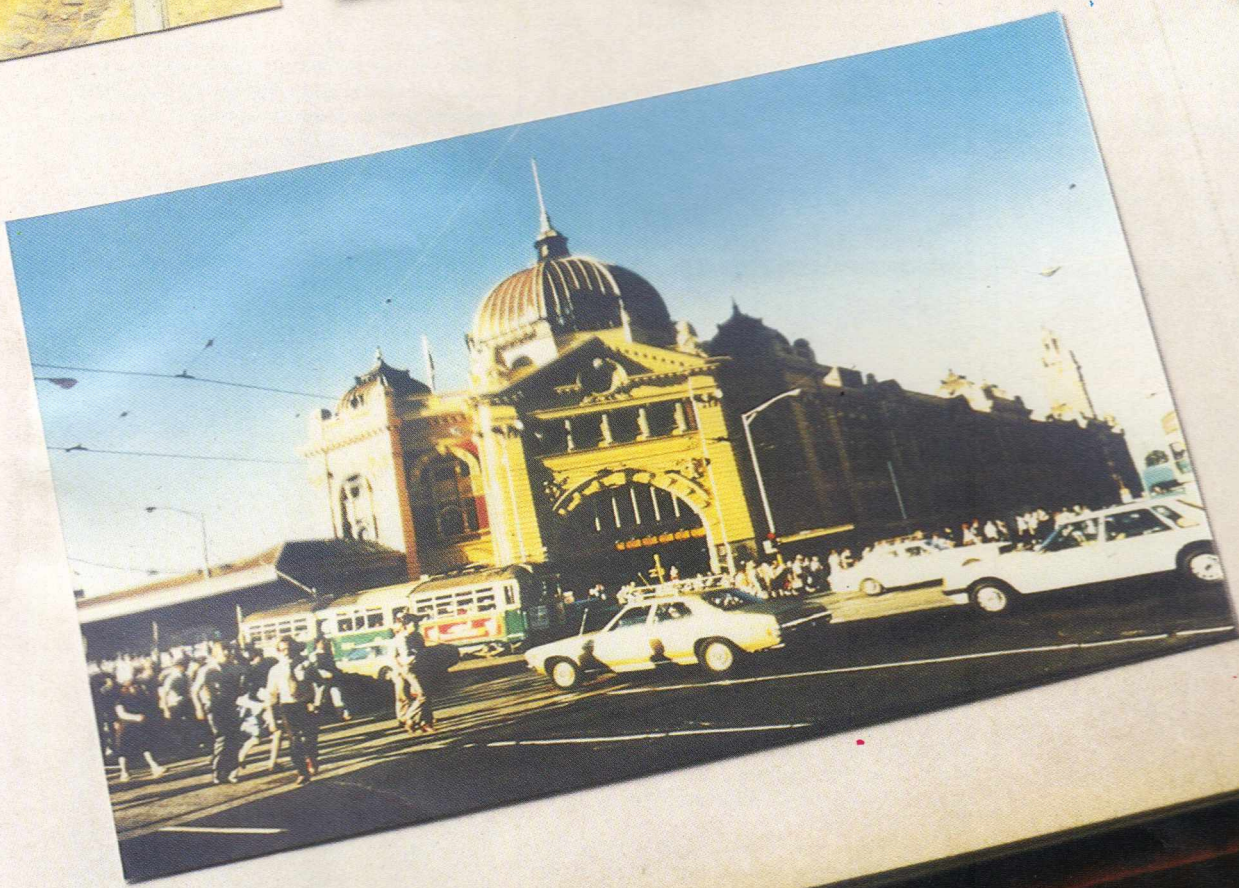

Earlier Turnbull, who had his 61st birthday on Saturday, had won the 60 to 64 years 800, 1500, 5000, 10,000 metres and cross country titles, all with fine performances like his 1500-metre win on Saturday in 4:34.48.

Memories.

There are some wonderful memories shared by all those who took part in the World Veteran Games in Melbourne.

Memories of the stirring competition and camaraderie the Games created.

And memories of all the fantastic places you discovered throughout your stay.

But there's a lot more to Melbourne than that.

Like the beauty of our parklands and gardens. The fascinating culture of the National Gallery and Arts Centre. The world renowned restaurants, theatre and shopping. The tours through Victoria's rugged mountain scenery, stunning coastlines and historical goldmining towns. And lots, lots more.

So why not make your first trip to Melbourne just the beginning of finding out how much this city and state have to offer.

C'mon back to Melbourne, Victoria and relive the wonderful memories of one of the world's great cities.

Live it, love it
C'mon!

The latest ten year insurance bond bonus rates are just out. (Which dotted line will you be signing on?)

dramatic fluctuations in the marketplace.

It's those fluctuations that we'd like you to think about.

But first, what exactly is a ten year insurance bond?

It's a substantial commitment.

A lot of people invest a lot of money in ten year insurance bonds.

They have good reason to.

The prospect of multiplying one's investment, tax-free over 10 years is very attractive.

But 10 years is a long time to commit your money.

Especially if it means keeping your fingers crossed for the duration.

Is that what you really want from a ten year bond?

At IOOF, we don't think so.

We believe that a ten year bond should be secure, reliable and consistent.

And Supersaver's performance proves it. Of course, no-one can promise completely predictable performance.

But the fluctuations shown in our graph are quite instructive.

Over the last 3 years, IOOF has shown a consistent return. 12.30%

There are good reasons for this stability. IOOF is a very large financial organisation. 12.10%

Over $1.3 billion strong.

Our managers invest exclusively in Government approved areas such as Government and bank backed securities.

Other funds do not always show the same stability.

It's not quite true to say that smaller funds have all of their eggs in one basket.

But it certainly is true to say that they have smaller baskets.

You'll often see a variation in many of their returns. Up and down.

You're probably already aware of these fluctuations.

If you're thinking of investing thousands of dollars for ten years – up to $120,000 if you wish – you certainly should be.

And there's more you should know, including details of our attractive, once-only 3.6% management fee and access to your capital. Plus if your policy is surrendered within ten years a 29% tax benefit on any bonus included in assessable income applies.

Think about what's just happened.

The 1986/87 Bonus rate for IOOF's Supersaver has just been approved by the Registrar of Friendly Societies.

As the graph above shows, it's 11.02% tax paid.

As the graph also shows, Supersaver has performed very well compared to similar products.
